LAWSHE'S CONTENT VALIDITY RATIO

Gathered 10 professionals from universities, libraries and other learning organizations from around the U.S. to rank 156 items as "Essential", "Useful, but not Essential" or "Not Essential".

Chose all items that had a content validity ratio of >0 , which left 70 items. Revised remaining items according to expert comments.

ITEM ELIMINATION AND REVISION

STUDENT INPUT

4 students reviewed the 70 items in another Lawshe's ranking and then participated in a focus group to discuss some of the items.

Revised items based on student comments. Currently conducting pre- and post-surveys in a pilot study to measure test-retest reliability and complete a factor analysis.
